April to October

- Accommodation in a good 3-, 4- or 5 star hotel
- 4 x overnight stays with breakfast buffet
- 4 x dinner with a tasty 3-course menu
- 3 x guided city tours as per program
- 1 x entrance to the air-raid shelter “Kleines Berlin”
- 1 x entrance with guided tour of the Grotto Gigante
- 1 x wine tasting at a typical winery

Single Supplement: 100 €

- Day 1: Arrival at your hotel in the Friuli region.
- Day 2: After breakfast, travel to Trieste, one of the most beautiful and historic cities on the upper Adriatic coast. Trieste has always been a multicultural crossroads and today offers sights from every era. After a half-day guided city tour, you will head underground to explore the “little Berlin,” a network of tunnels from World War II. Here, you can still sense the atmosphere and fears experienced by the population during the war.
- Day 3: Today, you drive through the famous wine region inland from Lignano Sabbiadoro and first reach Palmanova — a uniquely charming, star-shaped town built as a fortress in the Middle Ages. After a guided tour of Palmanova, continue to Gorizia for another guided visit. This city, located on the border with Slovenia, has long been an important meeting point of Latin, Slavic, and Germanic cultures.
- Day 4: The Karst mountains, stretching from Trieste into Slovenia, are dotted with hundreds of caves and grottos. The most impressive of all is the Grotta Gigante, which you will visit today with a guided tour. Marvel at this majestic cave, around 10 million years old and nearly 100 meters high — one of the largest in the world. To round off the day, enjoy a wine tasting at a traditional Friulian winery.
- Day 5: Departure.
